Comments; Good competition and good sheep in the strong blustery weather at the time the finals were run.

Poor Jonty got hit with a dirty shower with hail in it when he started his run, but held his composure well.

Thanks to Mark Mallinson along with his timekeeper Alister Paul for judging the Handy Dog Challenge.

Thanks again to Scott Walker and his team of liberators for putting out good sheep. Thanks to the Baxter family for supplying them locally. Thanks to the West Otago Show committee for their support and to Aaron Apii from Purina Tux for being onsite over the two days with the continued sponsorship from Tux.

Congratulations to Andy Clark, Trev Wilson and Corey Wood for qualifying for the NZ finals in Taupo mid-January. Good luck guys.
