

Information sheet

King Country Charity Dog Trial 23rd, 24th, 25th September 2022
TUX Yarding Challenge and TUX Handy Dog Series

At Taringamotu Otamakahi Trust Farm, 1050 Ngakonui Ongarue Road, 21.2 km
(about 35 mins) from Taumarunui .

Judge Handy Dog- Bex Scragg (Reserve Keith Robertson)
Judge Yarding challenge- Brenda O'Leary (Reserve Andrew Savage)

Final date for entry September 1st, but heading entries may close sooner when draw is full (220 dogs)

Entry only accepted electronically. Link is in the body of the email

The run off for Handy dog event is likely to take place on Saturday afternoon. Heading dog finals will take place Sunday 25th. Some heading dogs will be required to run Sunday morning.

$16 per dog. King Country maidens $5 only. Advance payment required.

Bank account for direct credit 030449-0115748-00
Make sure your name is the reference so we can match payment to the entry.

Once prize money awarded, all other profit donated to Charity.

Competitor Information:

- Kitchen facilities will be available throughout the Trial.
- Competitors with more than two heading dogs should be prepared to start their runs by Friday afternoon. Some heading dogs will be required to run Sunday morning.
- Competitors indicating on their entry forms that they will be travelling together will qualify for reasonable consideration in the draw.
- Competitors must be available to run as drawn, otherwise they may forfeit their runs at the discretion of the Executive.
- Result status is on the competitor, not the dog. Status for Maiden is on the competitor having not won a maiden competition in any standard open event including previous TUX yarding or Handy dog trials. Status for Intermediate is on the competitor having not won an open event.
- Whether competing or not, all dogs entering the trial ground must have Ovis Clearance Certificates issued no more than 30 days prior to the trial.
- Competitors and Visitors enter the grounds at their own risk.

Thanks to Twin Rivers Motel for Accomodation concession

Enquiries Phone Robyn 07 8787653 or 027 2444045 evening