Comments; The Tux Yarding Challenge started on Thursday the 14th January in fine hot weather conditions and stayed hot and fine right through to Sunday when the finals finished. The sheep worked very well right through and there were very good runs. It was very pleasing to see a good number of maiden competitors giving it a go and getting plenty of encouragement from the supporters. Many thanks to Sheena who kept the runs going through smoothly and kept a good sense of humor through out the competition. Many thanks to Gary Denize and Dave Schaw the stewards and their helpers who kept the sheep up. Thanks also to Pamu for letting us use their land and sheep. Also to our caterer who supplied us with good food. Many thanks to our sponsors without their help it would be difficult to hold a competition like this. Special mention to the major sponsor Nestle Purina and Tux for their ongoing support of this event. Thanks to Kim Robinson the chief steward and president of the Waikato Centre, also all the other Centre helpers, many thanks.
